

Consulting on investment and development of local projects

Consulting on real estate project investment:

Impact Group provides the following real estate project consultancy services:

- Consulting on requirements for real estate investment projects for business to ensure the project is executed on schedule, quality assurance as prescribed by law.
- Consulting on the selection of locations, construction sites, introduction of construction sites in accordance with business goals.
- Assisting updating laws and issues related to investment registration procedures.
- Assisting the preparation of necessary documents and documents related to investment registration procedures.
- Assisting Customers to submit documents, access and process information during the process of competent State agencies processing records as prescribed.
- Assisting, consulting procedures and documents related to the project implementation.
- Assisting, consulting management activities during project implementation.

Related posts

Currently there are no news items.